NEW-YORK TRIBUNE.
1863.

The New-York Tribune, first issued in 1841, in its twenty-second year, has obtained both a larger and a more widely diffused circulation than any newspaper ever published. Though it has suffered, with other journals, from the embarrassment and departure of thousands of its patrons, to engage in the War for the Union, its circulation on this 6th of December, is as follows:

Daily 50,125
Semi-weekly 17,250
Weekly 148,000

Total 215,375

Primarily a journal of News and Literature, The Tribune has political opinions which are well characterized by the single word Republican. As a Republican it ... hearty adhesion to the great truth that "God has made of one blood all nations of men" ... DOES THE BIBLE SANCTION SUCH A PRINCIPLE?

VII.

Besides, in the sixth verse, there is an enumeration of the different elapses of the inhabitants, in which servants and strangers are included: "And the Sabbath of the land shall be meat for you." (For whom? For you Israelites) for thee, and for servant and for thy maid and for thy hired servant, and for thy stranger that sojourneth with thee. Further throughout all the regulations about the jubilee, and the sabbatical year, the strangers in the land are manifestly included in the precepts, prohibitions, and promised blessings. Again the year of jubilee was ushered in by the solemnities of the day of atonement.—What was the design of these institutions. The day of atonement prefigured the atonement of Christ, and the year of jubilee the Gospel jubilee.—And did they prefigure a Messiah's atonement and a Gospel jubilee to Jews only. Were they types of the remission of sons, and the proclamation of salvation to the nation of Israel alone. Is there no redemption for us Gentiles in these ends of the earth, and is our hope presumption and impiety. Did that old partition wall survive the shock that made earth quake, and hid the sun, and burst the graves and rocks, and the rent the temple vail. And did the Gospel only build it stronger and rear it higher to thunder direr perdition from its frowning battlements on all without. No! the God of our salvation lives. Good tidings of great joy shall be to all people. One shout shall swell from all the ransomed, "thou hast redeemed us unto God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue and people, and nation." To deny that the blessings of the jubilee, and of the atonement day extended to the servants from the Gentiles makes Christianity Judaism. It not only eclipses the glory of the Gospel, but strikes out the sun. No denunciations in the Bible are more terrible than those pronounced by God upon such as would not release their servants at the sound of the jubilee trumpet. By refusing to do this, they falsified and disannulled a grand leading type of the atonement, and, thus libelled the doctrine of Christ's redemtion. Finally, even if forever did refer to the length of individual service, we have ample precedents for limiting the term by the jubilee. The same word is used to define the length of time for which those Jewish servants were held, who refused to go out on the seventh year. And all admit that their term of service did not go beyond the jubilee. Ye shall take them as an inheritance for your children after you to inherit for a possession. This refers to the nations round about, and to the strangers sojourning among them, and not to the individual servants procured from these nations and strangers. But let us ascertain whether the words rendered "inherit" and "inheritance" when used in the Old Testament necessarily point the things inherited and possessed as articles of property, or in any sense, as chattels. 1. Nahal and Nahala—inherit and inheritance. See 2, Chron. 10, 16. "The people answered the King and said what portion have we in David, and we have none inheritance in the son of Jesse." Did they gravely men to disclaim the right of holding their King as an article of property. Psalms 12, 7, 3. "So children are a heritage (inheritance) of the Lord." Exodus 24, 9. "Pardon our iniquity and sin, and take us for thine inheritance." Are we to infer from this that when God pardons his enemies and adopts them as his children, that he makes them articles of property. Are forgiveness and chattel making, synonymous Psalm 110, 111. "Thy testimonies have I taken as a heritage (inheritance) forever. "Ask of me and I will give the heathen for thine inheritance Psalm 42, 14. See also Deuteronomy 4, 20. Joshua 13, 32. Psalm 42, 4. Prov. 14, 4. Genesis 42, 11.—And Joseph placed his father and his brethern, and gave a possession in the land of Egypt in the best of the land, in the land of Rameses, as Pharaoh had commanded. In what sense was the land of Goshen the possession of the Israelites. Answer—in the sense of occupation.

They lived there as tributaries to the King of Egypt. Ezekiel 44, 24. "Ye shall give them no posession in Israel, I am their possession. Now we put it in candor—in what sense were the Israelites to possess these nations and take them as an inheritance for their children. We answer—they possessed them as a source of permanent supply for domestic or household servants, and this relation to these nations was to go down to posterity as a standing regulation—a national usage respecting them, having the certainty and regularity of a descent by inheritance. The sense of the whole regulation may be given thus: "Thy permanent domestic, both male and female, which thou shalt have, shall be of the nations round about you, of them shall get male and female domestics." Moreover of the children of the foreigners that do sojourn among you of them shall ye get, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land, and they shall be your permanent resource" (for household servants.) And ye shall take them as a perpetual provision for your children after you, to hold as a constant source of supply. Always of them shall ye serve yourselves."

The last thing to be considered is the import of the word "Buy" and the phrase Bought with money. From the direction to the Israelites to "buy" their servants, and from the phrase "bought with money" applied to Abrahams servants, it is argued that such persons were bought and held as articles of property. The sole ground of this belief is the terms themselves, "buy" and "bought with money" and such an import to these terms when applied to servants under the Patriarchal and Mosaic systems, is assumed, not only in the absence of all proof, but in the face of evidence to the contrary. How much time and toil might be saved, if in discussion the thing to be proved was always assumed. To beguile by begging a question in debate would be great economy of midnight oil, and a forestaller of premature wrinkles and grey hairs by the multitude. Instead of protracted investigation into Scripture usage, and painful collation of passages, and cautious tracing of minute relations, to find out the meaning of Scripture terms, let every man resolve to interpret the language of the oldest book in the world by the usages of his own time and place, and the work is done. We repeat it, the only ground of the correction that these terms are to be interpreted to mean, when applied to servants in the Bible the same that they mean when applied to our slaves, is the terms themselves. What a Babel jargon would be made of the Bible if it were taken for granted that the sense in which words are now used is the inspired sense. David says: "I prevented the dawning of the morning and cried." Two hundred years ago prevent was used in the strict Latin sense, to come before or anticipate.—It was always used in this sense in the Old and New Testaments. David's expression translated into the English of the nineteenth century would be. "Before the dawning of the morning I cried," or I began to cry before day break. "So my prayer shall prevent thee." Let us prevent his face with thanksgiving." "Mine eyes prevent the night watches." In almost every chapter of the Bible words are now used in a sense nearly or quite obsolete. There never was a shallower conceit than that of making the present sense of a word, its sense centuries ago, by quoting its meaning now to prove that it meant so then. The inference that the word buy, used to describe the procuring of servants means procuring them as chattels or property seems based on this fallacy whatever cost money is money, that whatever or who ever you pay money for is an article of property.—The children of Israel were required to purchase their first born out from under the obligations of the priesthood, Num. 14, 15, 16. Exod. 34, 20. It was called buying their first born. The custom is kept to this day among the Jews and the word buy is still used to describe the transaction. Does this prove that their first born were, or were held as property.

They were bought as really as were servants. So the Israelites were required to pay money for their souls. This was called sometimes a ransom, sometimes an atonement. Were their souls therefore marketable commodities. Bible saints bought their wives. Boaz bought his wife Ruth. "So Ruth the Moabitess, the wife of Mahlon, have I purchased to be my wife," Ruth 4, 10. The prophet Hosea bought his wife, Hosea, 3, 2. Jacob bought his wives, Rachel and Leah, and not having money, paid for them in labor—seven years apiece, Gen. 29, 15, 29. Many other examples could be given. If buying servants among the Jews shows that they were property, and if the fact of their being bought is proof sufficient, then their buying wives shows that they were property, and the fact that they were bought, is proof sufficient. The words in the original which are used to the one, describe the other. Why not contend that the wives of the ancient fathers of the faithful and of the men after God's own heart were their chattels and used as ready change at a pinch. And thence deduce the rights of modern husbands. How far gone is the church from primitive purity? When will pious husbands by living up to their Bible privileges become partakers with the Old Testament worthies in the true glory of a husband's immunities? It demands a doubt whether professors of religion now are not bound to buy and hold their wives as property. Refusing to do so, is questioning the piety of those "good old" wife-trading patriarchs, Abraham, and Isaac and Jacob, with the prophets, and a host of whom the world was not worthy. The use of the word being to describe the procuring of wives is not peculiar to the Hebrews. The Syriac, the common expression for the "married" or the espoused" is the bought. That the Hebrew word, translated "buy" takes its modification from the nature of the subject to which it is applied, is manifest. Eve says, "I have gotten (bought) a man of the Lord." She named him Cain, that is bought. Consult Prov. 15, 32; Isiah 11, 11, Eza 78, 54, Jer. 13, 4, Neh. 5, 9, Prov. 8, 22. The Egyptians came to Joseph with the formal proposition to become servants, and that he should buy them. When the bargain was closed, Joseph said to them, "Behold, I have bought you this day." And yet they were not slaves, but voluntary servants. There is not a single instance of a servant being sold by any one but himself, not a case under [illegible] or Mosaic systems, in which a master sold his servant. That the servants who were "bought" sold themselves, is a fair inference from a variety of passages of Scripture, beside the case of Joseph and the Egyptians, Liviticus 25, 47. The case of the Israelite, who became the servant of the stranger; the words are, "If he sell himself unto the stranger." The same word, and form of word, rendered in the 47th verse, sell himself, as in the 39th verse he sold. The following passages furnish a clue to Scripture usages on this point: I. Kings 21, 20, 25; II. Kings 17, 17; Isaiah 1, 1; Isaiah 52. 3; Jeremiah 34, 14; Romans 7, 13, and 7, 16; John 8, 34.

A GRAND MISTAKE.

CAUGHT IN MY OWN TRAP.

Dora and I had been silent fully fifteen minutes—an unusual occurrence for us—when she suddenly broke out with one of her gayest, sweetest pearls of laughter. The cars were going at the rate of forty miles an hour, but Dora's laugh rang out above all their noise and confusion.

"What is it, Dora, you witch, you?" I said, half piqued that she had not first told me what pleased her, and laughed afterwards.

"Nothing, Nell; only I was thinking of something so funny. Do you see that gentleman in front of us, with the beautiful black whiskers and dreamy brown eyes? Well, he's been watching you behind that book the last half hour, looking as if he should love to take a bite from the red roses on your cheeks. Don't blush; but he's in love with you—I'll bet my gold thimble on it. I was just thinking of some the stories I have read, about young ladies mistaking handsome fellows for their brothers, etc., and tho't what fun it would be if you could only manage to mistake that gentleman for your brother Fred."

I was ready for some fun in a moment.

"Tell you what I'll do, Dora," I broke out, eagerly. "You know I havn't seen Fred since I went to school three years ago; and, of course, he's changed a good deal since then. Well, if that literary gentleman with the brown eyes (he is handsome, isn't he, Dora?) should get off the cars at our depot, I'll wait till he gets mixed up with the crowd; see him suddenly, as if for the first time, rush up to him in a flutter of delight, call him brother Fred, and give him such another kissing as he hasn't had since he saw his sweetheart last."

"Yes, I would if I were you," said Dora sarcastically. "You daren't you know."

"Don't I dare to, though? Wait and see!"

And so I dropped back into the cushion and silence, till the train stopped at our station.

Dora gave me a wicked look and whispered that she knew my courage would fail me; for the gentleman was really getting off.

I was not to be triumphed over, though; and so, as we stepped out on the platform I saw the crowd, and with a little bound, threw myself into his arms and kissed him full in the mouth, hysterically saying—

"Fred, my dear, dear brother! how are you?"

I caught a glimpse of Dora—she was in danger of going into convulsions. I expected to hear the stranger confusedly say that there was some mistake; but, to my surprise, he gave me a hearty embrace—kissed me two or three times—said he was well—that I had grown a little, and then inquired for my little friend, Dora—who, all this time was exciting the sympathies of the crowd, as they supposed she was insane, judging from her frantic laughter.

"Father and mother are expecting you, Nellie, and are so impatient they can scarcely wait to see you. I was afraid you wouldn't know me; but I am really glad that my image has been treasured up so carefully in my little sister's heart."

I was bewildered beyond measure. It really was Fred, then; and I had not known him. I felt slightly ridiculous, and while introducing Dora to my brother, whispered to her to keep quiet in reference to my intended trick. I was too much confused to think of inquiring how he came to be in the cars without seeing me; so we all went to the carriage that was waiting for us, and rapidly drove home.

I had never known Fred to be so [illegible]. He held my hand in his own all the time, and kissed me at unnecessarily short intervals; but, to tell the truth, I had never loved him half so well before—never thought him half so handsome.

We reached the gate. Mother kissed me and cried over me all at once; father repeated it; and finally, a frank, hearty voice broke out with—

"Hallo, sis! aren't you going to notice your scapegrace of a brother at all?"

And to my astonishment, a handsome fellow I had not seen before gave me a genuine hug and a kiss that you could have heard across the yard.

"There is some mistake," I murmured. "Are you my brother Fred? I thought that gentleman was," pointing to the handsome fellow I had embraced at the depot.

"Why, sis, are you going crazy?—Of course I'm your brother, and that fellow there is my college chum, Archie Winters, who went half way up the line to meet you. What are you blushing at, Nell? There wasn't any thing wrong in his going after you, was there? I didn't have time to go, and let him take your picture with him so that he would be sure to know you. He's been playing off some of his mad pranks, and been passing himself off for me, I'll warrant."

I looked at Archie Winters beseechingly; and as they were all going into the house I whispered:

"For pity's sake, don't speak of that mistake. How could it have happened?"

"I overheard you in the cars; and will promise to keep your secret only on one condition."

He whispered something to me that made my face flush scarlet; but I was at his mercy, and said I would think of it. I did think of it, reader; and, to the delight of the whole family—Dora and Fred in particular—Archie and I were married in less than two months. And Dora said to me, as I bade her good-by, that it would give unspeakable delight to Fred and herself, if I would attend their wedding in a month from then—and I did.

The beauty of the soul is faith. As ideal lovliness is to the sculptor, faith is to the heart. Faith, rightly understood, extends over all the works of the Creator, whom we can know but through belief; it embraces a calm confidence in ourselves, and a serene repose as to our future; it is the moonlight that sways the tides of the human sea.

Husbands.

Young ladies past the age of fifteen, and from that delicate and interesting age all the way up to forty, and perhaps even later, are generally supposed to be, more or less, on the look-out for a husband. Nice dresses and pretty bonnets, music and dancing, and the polite accomplishments in societies where these are cultivated, and very much of what is called society, are supposed to have this object in view.

We do not say how just this is; but such is undoubtedly the popular idea. It is believed that nine out of ten of all unmarried ladies would not object to a good husband.

But the supply of good husbands is not equal to the demand. Consequently we have some hundreds of thousands of old maids—nuns who have taken no veils or vows, and who do not live in convents, but who are none the less living in a state of celibacy. Some think this a dangerous and immoral state. We are not of that opinion.

The surplus of women makes the celibacy of many a necessity. The unworthiness of men is the cause of a greater number. We see thousands of men around us whose married state is a constant marvel to us. We cannot conceive how they ever induced any woman to have them. Rough in manners, careless in their morals, slovenly in appearance, and filthy in their habits, how can these men be the fit husbands of tender, delicate, loving women? Still such men do get married. We read about them in the newspapers. Sometimes they are complained of for beating, bruising, or stabbing their wives. Sometimes it is a suit for divorce. But there are thousands of such cases that are never heard of. Many a proud, sensitive woman dies of a brutal husband, and the world never knows it.

Until the standard of husbandly virtues is raised, and the market better supplied, women will do well to prepare for the struggle of life without their help. There is too much marrying in haste, and of consequence, too much repenting at leasure. Marriage which develops all that is lovely in woman, sometimes brings out the worst qualities of men. Many a woman at forty exceeds the promise of her girlhood, but how few of the men who do not fall very far short of the hopes of youth.

Probably the chief motive to many a marriage is never avowed and is scarcely suspected. Women are such angels of charity, that they marry bad men out of pure benevolence, in the hope of making them better.—They know how much men need their society and influence, and how much worse they would be without them, and so they give themselves up for better or worse, sacrifices on the altar of charity.

Pandora's Box.

Pandora, according to the heathen mythology, was the first female created. She was formed of clay, by Vulcan, at the request of Jupiter. As soon as endowed with life, all the gods are said to have vied with each other in presenting her with gifts. She received beauty and the art of pleasing from Venus; the power of captivating from the Graces; Apollo taught her how to sing, Mercury instructed her in eloquence, and Minerva endowed her with wisdom. Hence she was called Pandora, from the Greek words pan all and doron, gift, signifying that she was all-gifted. Jupiter finally presented her with a box filled with innumerable evils, which she was desired to give to the man who married her. She was then conducted by Mercury to Prometheus. He, suspicious of deceit, would not accept the present; but his brother, Epimetheus, less prudent, married her. He having accepted and opened the box, there issued from it a multitude of evils and disasters, which speedily dispersed themselves all over the earth, and have never since ceased to afflict mankind. He shut the box in haste again, but all was gone. Hope alone, which Jupiter had compassionately inclosed in his unhappy gift, had not time to escape, and consequently remained as the one consolation of wretched mortals. This has given rise to the expression, "Hope lies at the bottom."

Mixture for a Cough or Cold.—Take one teacupful of flaxseed and soak it all night. In the morning, put in a kettle two quarts of water, a handful of liquorice root split up, one quarter of a pound of raisins broke in half. Let all boil until the strength is thoroughly exhausted; then add the flaxseed which has been previously soaked. Let all boil half an hour or more, watching and stirring that the mixture may not burn. Then strain and add lemon juice and sugar.

Apple Jelly.—Slice whole apples, (cores, parings and all,) cook them with just water enough to cover them, till reduced to a soft pulp. Take the rind and juice of four lemons; strain this pulp, (not squeezing it much or going over it twice) add the lemons, measure pint for pound white sugar; let it boil a half hour, and turn into forms.

☞ Smith, the razor strop man now in the 140th New York Regiment, was badly wounded in the leg at Gettysburg. But he has just one more left."

Mince Pies vs. Tracts.

A good story is related by a German who was confined in one of the hospitals at Nashville, which proves conclusively that sick soldiers appreciate food for the stomach more than the mind. A rebel lady visited the hospital one morning with a negro servant, who carried a large basket on his arm, covered with a white linen cloth. She approached our German friend and accosted him thus: "Are you a good Union man?" "I ish dat," was the laconic reply of the German, at the same time casting a hopeful glance at the aforesaid basket. "That is all I wanted to know," replied the lady, and, beckoning to the negro to follow, she passed to the opposite side of the room, where a rebel soldier lay, and asked him the same question, to which he very promptly replied: "Not by a d—d sight." The lady thereupon uncovered the basket, and laid out a bottle of wine, mince pies, pound cake and other delicacies, which were greedily devoured in the presence of the Union soldiers who felt somewhat indignant. On the following morning, however, another lady made her appearance with a large covered basket and she also accosted our Union man. "I ish, by dam; I no care what you got: I bese Union." The German friend thought that the truth availed in this case, it did not in the other. But imagine the length of the poor fellow's face when the lady uncovered her basket and presented him with about a bushel of tracts. He shook his head dolefully, and said, "I no read English; and, preside, dat repel our de loder side of de house need dem so more as me." The lady distributed them and left.

Not long afterwards along came another sighly-dressed lady, who propounded the same question again to our German friend. He stood gazing at the basket, apparently at a loss for a reply. At length he answered her in Yankee style, as follows:—By dam, you no get me dis time. Vat you got in de basket?" The lady required an unequivocal answer to her question, and was about to move on, when our German friend shouted out:—"I got tracts, I bese Union; but it got mince pies, mit pound cake and vine, I bese Secesh like ter tuyfel!"

The Question at Issue.

By the nomination of Messrs. Curtin and Agnew, the question of the political status of the parties in this Commonwealth, is at once broadly and distinctly stated. There can be no dispute as to what constitutes the essential difference between the loyal party, represented by Curtin and Agnew and the so called Democratic party represented by Messrs. Woodward and Lowry.

The so called Democratic party in this State, is in direct sympathy with the rebellion, and that is the essential characteristic of the party, every man who shall at this election vote for Woodward, will be by that very act, a supporter of the rebellion. It is notorious that the efforts of those copperhead sympathisers, in New York and elsewhere, whose acts, in resistance to the draft, and other like movements have given the most intense gratification to the rebel chieftains, and have been in direct communication with them. Although the main efforts of the Democratic press in this State, are mainly directed to an ingenious attempt to conceal their motives from public view that it is easily penetrated by any one who will fix his attention for a moment, upon it. For instance the doctrine of State Rights, the denunciations of the Federal executive, the long and frequent tirade paraded in the copperhead press about the "conscription act," the pretended concern for the invasion of civil rights and the interminable twaddle in regard to the Constitution as it is and the Union as it was. What are all and each of these but insiduous attempts to overthrow the powers of the General Government and to bring into contempt the present administration. And for what purpose? Can there be one? No; there is but one motive, and that is the "support of the rebellion." For it is understood, that as this rebellion, has for its chief corner stone, slavery, which being truly analyzed, means, that men are not created equal, that they should not receive the just rewards of their labor, that one class shall bear all the burdens, which is in effect rank injustice in every respect to the sympathizers with the rebellion, hate this Government and are secretly and bitterly opposed to every effort which has been put forth to crush the rebellion.

The ticket put in nomination by the Democrats, is a ticket whose supporters are in favor of the rebellion, and opposed to the Union of these States. The ticket put in nomination at Pittsburgh last week will be supported by men who are in favor of the Union of the States.

Men of Beaver county, the question is fairly before you. On one side Union, loyalty, and the preservation of the noblest and best Government the world ever saw, on the other Disunion, Treason and the destruction of this Government, choose you between them.

SOLDIERS' BENEFIT.—On Thursday, August 20th, 1863, a dinner and concert will be given in the Grove near "Bethlehem Church." Hons. Daniel Agnew, Dr. D. H. A. M'Lean, Rev. R. S. Morton will address the people.

The proceeds are to be appropriated to the "Young Men's Christian Commission."

Curtin and Agnew.

A Convention of the loyal men of Pennsylvania could do nothing more than renominate Andrew G. Curtin for Governor of the State. Those who offered reasons why another man should have been selected, found, when they went to Pittsburg, that they were the mere arguments and calculations of the politician, and possessed no favor with the people. The people of this State love Andrew G. Curtin, and their representatives, in convention assembled, gave expression to their love and confidence by giving him the gubernatorial nomination on the first ballot. It was eminently the work of the people. They had seen this man tried, for three long years as no Chief Magistrate had ever been tried before. Coming into power with the Administration of Mr. Lincoln, he was called upon to grapple with the rebellion in the name of Pennsylvania, to represent the loyalty and power of our grand old State, and to direct its energies in support of the Union and the Administration in the prosecution of the war. How this work has been done it is not for us to say. It is written upon the most glorious pages of Pennsylvania's history. It is written in the story of her valor, her devotion, and sacrifices; and, more than all, in the bold and self-sacrificing statesmanship that made these things elements of strength and power on the side of freedom. When Pennsylvania sent forth her sons to war upon treason in the South, Governor Curtin went with them, ministering to their wants, alleviating the hardships of the field and camp, speaking words of comfort to the sick and wounded, and words of encouragement and pride to those who had deserved well of the State. He was with them in their joys and sorrows—after every period of victory and defeat. And so earnestly and faithfully did he labor in their behalf, that at this time his name is mentioned with love and pride in the tent of every Pennsylvania soldier. When invasion came, he opposed the invader with a fierce energy that drew the people around him, and aided materially in obtaining the fruits of victory. To Governor Curtin belongs much of the glory that Pennsylvania has gained, and much of the gratitude that the people should feel in having escaped conquest and devastation.

The nomination of this man is therefore, a compliment to him and an assurance of our devotion to the Administration. The people have made it, and the people will indorse it by an overwhelming majority in October. Now is the time for all who really believe in the cause, and that its triumph is the triumph of liberty and Union, to lay aside all selfishness and jealously, and personal animosities, and unite around this man as our leader, and the platform of the convention as the platform of faith. In the person of the Hon. Daniel Agnew, the Convention has placed at his side an accomplished and learned jurist, one fully convinced of the truth of the great issue now agitating the country, and whose election would add an ornament to the bench. With such men in nomination, no loyal man can hesitate. Let us organize every where. Let committees and clubs be formed, and no effort spared to strengthen and unite the friends of the cause. We can win this victory in October if we begin at once and manage the canvass with judgment and energy. Let the line of battle be immediately formed, and the contest at once begin. —Phila. P.

Union State Convention.

The Union State Convention which met at Pittsburgh on the 5th instant, nominated Andrew G. Curtin of Centre county for Governor and Hon. Daniel Agnew, of Beaver, for Judge of the Supreme Court:

The vote stood as follows:

For Governor—
A. G. Curtin, : : 95 votes.
H. D. Moore, : : 17 "
Jno. P. Penney, 16 "
T. C. Brewster, : 3 "
J. K. Moorehead, 1 "

Hon. Daniel Agnew was unanimously nominated for Judge of the Supreme Court.

No better nominations could have been made. And both these gentlemen will be triumphantly elected on the second Tuesday of October. We have not got space this week to speak of these candidates at length, but will do so at another time.

RETAKEN.—The notorious Wash. Gordon, who escaped from jail some time ago, where he was confined under sentence for "assault and battery with intent to kill," was recaptured by the Sheriff on last Saturday, at Rochester, and again lodged in jail.

After he broke jail he was arrested as a deserter and sent to his regiment; and we presume that he has again deserted, as he had done several times before. Wash. is a troublesome customer

List of Prisoners in Libby Prison at Richmond, Va.

The following is a list of members of the 140th Regiment of Pennsylvania Volunteers, now in Libby Prison, Richmond, Va., belonging to the three Beaver county companies:

Company I.—Serg'ts J. H. Springer, Wm. A. M'Millen, B. F. Welsh. Corporals Wm. Agnew, J. H. Douds, Eli Watson, Geo. M. Brooks, Marshall T. Johnston, Daniel Bowers, Thomas Sawness, Wm. P. Gibson, Patrick Wise, Geo. Marks, Levi Rhodes, John Mitchell.

Company F.—J. R. Dunlap, Joseph O Schley, Rurel W. Strock, John M'Cullough.

Company H.—D. R. Whitsell, J. R. Fleezel.

ALVEN GREENLEE of Co. F, 140th Regiment Pa. Vol., wounded in the battle of Gettysburg, died of his wound in the hospital of that place. His remains arrived here last Thursday morning, and were interred on Sunday. His funeral was attended by a large concourse of friends and citizens.

John C Gibb, of the same Regiment, cousin of Greenlee, and wounded in the same battle, died about the same time. Also H Ewing, who was also wounded in the same battle, is also dead.

RESISTING THE DRAFT.—A regiment of cavalry has been encamped for a few days below Beaver, on the farm of Robt. Potter, Esq. We understand that they have been sent out to enforce the draft where any resistance may be made. We learn that quite a resistance was made in one township in Washington county. The cavalry were fired into by some of the rebels there, which was returned by our men, wounding several. The troops finally succeeded in capturing the whole party. What disposition was made of them we have not yet learned.

☞ Gov. Curtin has made an arrangement by which the claims of Pennsylvania Volunteers and their families for back pay, pensions and bounty will be collected through the State agency free of charge to the applicant. Communications should be addressed to Col. R. Biddle Roberts, Pennsylvania State Agency, 487 Eleventh street, Washington, D. C.

AGRICULTURAL MEETING.—The managers of the Agricultural Society of Beaver county, are earnestly requested to meet at the Court House, in Beaver on the 15th inst., at 1 o'clock, p. m., as business of importance is to be transacted. Let there be a full attendance.

ERROR.—In our last issue under the caption "Generous Church." The following sentence occurred "The Church has done nobly and desires and will receive great praise for their liberality. It should have read deserves instead of "desires."

☞ We are under obligations to Capt. D. M. Maratta, commander of the United States steamer Madison, for New Orleans papers.

Army Letters.

The following letters we publish by request, and will be perused with interest by our readers:

HEADQ'TERS 101ST REG. P. V.,
PLYMOUTH, N. C., July 23.

No military leader has ever had the confidence and profound admiration of his entire command, to a greater extent, than has General Wessels, the late commander of the Brigade to which our Regiment is attached. Few have possessed the exalted character—the noble nature—which would entitle them to that profound regard.—As a man, kind, generous, and unassuming; as a commanding officer, a thorough disciplinarian; as a soldier, he has no superior.

It were well for our country if all her Generals possessed the same fervent, disinterested, inflexible devotion to her cause.

It is not strange that such an officer would be esteemed as a father by those under his command and who are always proud when they say, "we belong to Wessells' old Brigade."

Two months ago, the officers of the Brigade presented the General with two fine horses, and equipments.

As an evidence of their appreciation, and as a testimonial of their gratitude, the enlisted men of the 101st Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers have presented the General with an elegant sword, sash and belt, costing over $500.00. The sword was manufactured, to order in New York, and is one of the finest and most beautiful swords, we have ever seen.

101ST REGIMENT PENN'A VOLS.,
PLYMOUTH, N. C., July 20, '63.

H. W. WESSELLS.—Esteemed General:—In behalf of the enlisted men of the 101st Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, permit me to say that accompanying this note we take the liberty of presenting you with a sword, sash and belt which we have had manufactured for that purpose, and which we offer to you as a testimonial of the heartfelt gratitude and esteem of the entire Regiment, for the kind, even and discreet military discipline you have ever been pleased to extend toward us, as well as an evidence of our appreciation of your general merit. We are impelled to this, not because such presentations are common in military circles, but by impulses of the most tender regard.—The inscription "Fair Oaks" on the scabbard, may suggest afresh to your memory the stormy scenes that followed so quickly upon you assuming command of our Brigade in the midst of the ill-fated campaign on the banks of the Chickahominy.

This memento may also recall to your mind the succession of shifting events through which you have passed with our old Brigade since then, the memorable retreat to the James River, our late and more brilliant march into the interior of the Old North State, while the several devices on the scabbard, the coat of arms of our native State and the Godess of Liberty will serve as emblems of the inflexible fortitude in the cause of liberty of those presenting it. With it you will accept the warmest wishes of the entire Regiment for your uninterrupted success and welfare in the future. You will please receive it then as a seal of the unwavering friendship of the 101st Regiment.

J. H. LONGENECKER,
On part of Committee of presentation.

DISTRICT OF THE ALBEMARLE,
PLYMOUTH, N. C., July 21, '63.

Soldiers of the 101st:—On my return last night from a tour of duty, your letter of the 20th, signed by Lieut. Longenecker in your behalf and accompanied by the sword, sash and belt of a General officer, awaited me at my private quarters. This evidence of taste and good will from the enlisted men of a veteran Regiment, is peculiarly gratifying and so unexpected, that I find it difficult to convey to you in proper language, the pleasure it has afforded me; the more so, as I believe in the sincerity of your flattering expressions.

A year has passed since I joined you, an entire stranger, in the face of the enemy, and on the threshold of a great reverse: you have looked both in the dark and the bright side of a soldier's life, your patience and endurance have been tried by privations and exposures, that can be appreciated only by those who have shared them with you, and I can bear testimony to the cheerful spirit with which they have been met.

Having no political desires or aspirations, I have but one object before me, in my official relations with yourselves, that is a discipline and soldierly pride, that give character to regiments, and to individuals comprising them; if in this I have gained your confidence and esteem, it is my full reward. In accepting from your hands this beautiful gift, I can only say, that it will be remembered as the most agreeable event of my military service, and wishing you a safe return to your homes, allow me to add that it will afford me sincere pleasure to meet you hereafter, in the employment of that peace and prosperity which your arms have aided to establish.

With much respect, your ob't ser't,
H. W. WESSELLS,
Brig. Gen'l Vol's.

To the Enlisted men of the 101st Pennsylvania Volunt'rs, Plymouth, North Carolina.

Resolutions of the Union State Convention.

Mr. McVeigh, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, presented the following report, which was unanimously adopted:

The loyal men of Pennsylvania, in Convention assembled, disclaiming all partizanship, and knowing no cause but that of the country, declare for themselves and their constituents,

1st. Their inflexible purpose to maintain, by every necessary effort, service and sacrifice, the National Union, as the first, the highest, the most solemn and the most overshadowing of all political duties.

2d. That the rebellion which threatens the existence of the Union was without cause, was conceived in wickedness, organized in perjury, and developed by reckless violation, is stained with every crime, and detestible in means and infernal in purpose, must be suppressed by the people of the United States, at the destruction of whose liberties and the overthrow of whose free institutions it is impiously aimed.

3d. That in the momentous contest now waging there are, and can be but two parties, viz: the one which firmly sustains the constituted authorities of the nation in enforcing all the laws thereof, and in protecting the principles upon which the government rests, and is, therefore, at once the party of law of liberty, and of patriotism; the other which cripples the constituted authorities of the nation in enforcing the laws, securing the safety and preserving the life of the nation, and is, therefore, the parent of mobs, the enemy of order and a participant of treason, a class whose detestible practices not only give "aid and comfort" to the common enemy, but as confessed in Richmond, light up these days of rebel darkness and disaster, and actually stimulate them to renewed and desperate efforts to recruit their armies, and to whom is this day justly chargeable whatever of vitality the rebellion possesses, and whatever of calamity or affliction the further protraction of the contest may involve. But for Northern sympathizers, and the hopes their treasonable existence inspired, the rebellion would have sunk under the staggering blows dealt it at Gettysburg, Vicksburg and Port Hudson.

4th. That wholly without sympathy for the men who have made this war against a free Republican Government, or for the system of human bondage, in whose interest it was instigated, or the cause of despotic principles to which it is now devoted, this Convention declares all engaged therein, while so engaged, to be worthy only of our patriotic hate; and in like spirit we denounce as doubly recreant and base those resident of the loyal States who tolerate this treason, would affiliate with armed traitors, and again surrender our government and liberties to their keeping.

5th. That Abraham Lincoln, the President of the United States, by his discharge of his most onerous duties in these dark days of civil war has won for himself the affections and regard of the American people, and always bearing himself clear in his high office, has maintained the integrity of the Union and kept our honor untarnished throughout the world, and to him and his administration, its principles and its policy, we give our hearty approval, and pledge an earnest and enthusiastic support.

6th. That we tender to the gallant sons of Pennsylvania, now in the armies and navies of the republic, the thanks of a grateful people for their unselfish and heroic valor; that we mourn for those who have sealed in their blood their devotion to their country, and will cherish their memories tenderly and proudly; while to the glorious survivors we give the assurance that the last dollar and the last life shall be given to reinforce them until the old flag floats in final victory.

7th. Resolved, That Governor Curtin, by the effective support he has given the Federal Government in the prosecution of the war, and his vigilant care for our soldiers alike in the field, the camp and the hospital, has given Pennsylvania a proud pre-eminence among the loyal States, and himself, to the thanks of all her loyal citizens, and in placing him again in nomination, we but give expression to the spontaneous wishes of the Commonwealth he has served so well, to present, for their suffrages, a patriotic statesman, who is alike the friend of the soldier and the favorite of the people.

8th. Resolved, That the amendments proposed to the Constitution, in giving our soldiers in the field the right of suffrage, merits our hearty approval, and will receive our united support, and that we recommend the conventions of loyal men throughout the State, to pledge all candidates for the Legislature to vote for it.

9th. Resolved, That we hereby declare our unalterable attachment to the doctrines of the fathers of the Republic, as enunciated in the declaration by President Monroe, that there shall be no inteference by a European or foreign power, with Governmental affairs upon this continent.

10th. Resolved, That, in Hon. Daniel Agnew, we present an accomplished jurist, a pure patriot, and a loyal citizen. He will adorn the highest judicial tribunal of the Commonwealth, and give additional security to the rights of person and property.

The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Mr. Heichhold, of Jefferson, offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the bold and determined stand taken by the Administration, in summarily arresting persons found to be guilty of traitorous practices, merits our hearty commendation, and that in performing this part of its military duties, were necessary for the public safety, we pledge it our hearty co-operation.

At 10½ o'clock, the Convention adjourned sine die.

By order of Col. Fay,
Provost Marshal General.

A FREE PRESS.—The Virginian, published at Norfolk, is a journal devoted to the cause of the Union and the labor: we are glad to see such an evidence of the growth of healthful sentiment in that part of Virginia as is shown by the fact that the Virginian, which was started but a few weeks ago as a semi-weekly, is now to be issued daily.

A correspondent in Norfolk writes: "Slavery is dead in this part of Virginia, even if peace should be established to-morrow, and Fernando Wood dictate the terms. Yankee immigration has already set in, and merchants from New York, Philadelphia, and Boston, transact nearly all the business in Norfolk and Portsmouth."

MORE INDIAN TROUBLES.—Judge Wright, of Indiana, who has been out in that region as agent of the Government locating the Indians, Cannaches, Arrapahoes, Apaches, &c., estimates their number at from ten to twelve thousand, giving from 2 to 3 thousand warriors. These Indians had been visited by the Sioux, who had urged them to commence hostilities against the whites by attacking the wagon trains on the Santa Fe road along the Arkansas river, and committing other depredations. Thus far peace had been preserved, and it was confidently hoped would. A plan is now in consideration of Government which will have a decided tendency to stop any further warlike movements on the part of these Indians.

Died---On the 30th, day of July last, Mrs HANAAH SHANNON, one of the oldest residents of the Borough of Beaver, aged about eighty years.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing certain Amendments

TO THE CONSTITUTION.

BE it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following amendments be proposed to the Constitution of the Commonwealth, in accordance with the provisions of the tenth article thereof:

There shall be an additional section to the third article of the Constitution, to be designated as section four, as follows:

Sec. 4. Whenever any of the qualified electors of this Commonwealth shall be in any actual military service, under a requisition from the President of the United States, or by the authority of this Commonwealth, such electors may exercise the right of suffrage in all elections by the citizens, under such regulations as are, or shall be, prescribed by law, as fully as if they were present at their usual place of election.

There shall be two additional sections to the eleventh article of the Constitution, to be designated as sections eight and nine, as follows:

Sec. 8. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature, containing more than one subject, which shall be clearly expressed in the title, except appropriation bills.

Sec. 9. No bill shall be passed by the Legislature granting any powers, or privileges, in any case, where the authority to grant such powers, or privileges, has been, or may hereafter be, conferred upon the courts of this Commonwealth.

JOHN CESSNA,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
JOHN P. PENNEY,
Speaker of the Senate.

Office of the Sec'y of the Commonwealth,

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES.

DR. CHEESEMAN'S PILLS.

THE combination of ingredients in these Pills are the result of a long and extensive practice. They are mild in their operation, and certain in correcting all irregularities, painful menstruations, removing all obstructions, whether from cold or otherwise, headache, pain in the side, palpitation of the heart, whites, all nervous affections, fatigue, hysterics, pain in the back and limbs, etc., disturbed sleep, which arise from interruption of nature.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

was the commencement of a new era in the treatment of those irregularities and obstructions which have consigned so many to a PREMATURE GRAVE. No female can enjoy good health unless she is regular, and whenever an obstruction takes place the general health begins to decline.

Dr. Cheeseman's Pills

are the most effectual remedy known for all complaints peculiar to Females. To all classes they are invaluable, inducing, with certainty, periodical regularity. They are known to thousands, who have used them at different periods, throughout the country, having the sanction of some of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit directions, stating when they should not be used, with each Box—the Price One Dollar per Box, containing from 50 to 60 Pills.

Pills sent by mail, promptly, by remitting to the Proprietor. Dr. Smith of Bridgewater sole agent for this County.

THE SOLDIER'S TRUE FRIEND!

ALWAYS READY.

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT.

LONG marches, sore and stiff joints, blistered and inflamed feet, all these the soldier must endure, MOTHERS, REMEMBER THIS, when your sons are grasping their muskets to meet danger, think what relief a pot of this ALL HEALING & COOLING Salves will give to the one you love when far away from home and friends. It hardens and makes tough the feet so that they can endure great fatigue. It soothes and relieves the inflamed and stiffened joints, leaving them supple, strong and vigorous, while for at stands unequalled, removing and preventing every vestige of inflammation and gently drawing the edges together, it quickly and completely heals the most frightful wounds.

WIVES AND SISTERS OF OUR VOLUNTEERS

Yo cannot put into the Knapsacks of your Husbands and Brothers, a more valuable or more necessary gift than a supply of this EXTRAORDINARY MILITARY SALVE.

The lonely sentry walking his rounds at night, exposed to drenching rains and chill night air, is often seized the most VIOLENT PAINS, COUGHS and SUFFOCATING HOARSENESS, first symptoms of QUICK CONSUMPTION, but if supplied with HOLLOWAY'S PILLS and HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT, all danger is averted, a few Pills taken night and morning, and the ointment briskly rubbed twice a day over the throat and chest will remove the SEVEREST PAINS and stop the most distressing or DANGEROUS COUGH Thefore we say to the whole army,

SOLDIERS ATTENTION!!

See to your own health, do not trust to the Army supplies although most valuable. These PILLS and OINTMENT have been thoroughly tested, they are the only remedies used in the European Camps and Barracks, for over forty years Doctor Holloway has supplied all the armies in Europe, and during the CRIMEAN CAMPAIGN he established a depot at Balaclava, for the exclusive sale of these GREAT REMEDIES, many a time his special Agent there has sold over a ton in weight of the Ointment in a single day. These terrible and fatal enemies of the Soldier in Camp, DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, SCURVY, SORES and SCROFULOUS ERUPTIONS, all disappear like a charm before these PILLS, AND OINTMENT, and now while the Cry rings throughout the land,

TO ARMS! TO ARMS!!

Do not let these brave men perish by disease, place in their hands these PRECIOUS REMEDIES, that will enable them to resist the dangerous exposures, the Fevers, the Chills, and the wounds which they cannot avoid, and what is more, cannot frequently get succor in the moment of need, whereas if our brave men have only to put their hands into their Knapsacks and find there a sure remedy for all the casualties of the battle field. How many thousands of lives would thus be saved, who would otherwise perish before relief could be obtained.

CAUTION.—None are genuine, unless the words "Holloway, New York and London," are discernable as a water-mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box: the same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

☞ Sold at the Manufactory of Professor HOLLOWAY, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines, throughout the civilized world, in boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

☞ There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each box.

MARRIAGE.

ITS loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys; MANHOOD, how lost, how restored; the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermatorrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained, every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.

Address DR. WM. YOUNG, 416 Spruce st., above Fourth, Philadelphia.

☞ Afflicted and Unfortunate, no matter what may be your diseases, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious QUACKS—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's book, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

Dr. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publication, at his office, 416 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Philadelphia.

CRITTENDEN'S PHILADELPHIA OFFICIAL COLLEGE,

N. E. corner of 7th & Chestnut St.,
PHILADELPHIA, PA.

THIS Institution, which was established in 1844, and is now consequently in the eighteenth year of its existence, numbers among its graduates, hundreds of the most successful Merchants and Business Men of our Country.

The object of the Institution is solely to afford young men facilities for thorough preparation for business.

The branches taught are, Book-keeping, as applicable to the various departments of trade; Penmanship, both plain and ornamental; Commercial Law, mathematics, Navigation, Civil Engineering, Drawing, Phonography, and Modern Languages.

The system of Instruction is peculiar; no classes or set lessons are made use of, but each student is taught individually, so that he may commence at any time, and attend at whatever hours are most convenient.

Catalogues are issued annually after the 15th of April, containing names of the students for the year, and full particulars of terms, &c., and may be obtained at any time by addressing the Principal.

In extensive accommodations, wide-spread reputation, and the lengthy experience of the Principal, this Institution offers facilities superior to any other in the country, for young men wishing to prepare for business, and to obtain at the same time A DIPLOMA, which will prove a recommendation for them to any Mercantile House.

CRITTENDEN'S Series of Treatises on Book-Keeping, now more widely circulated than any other work on the subject, are for sale at the College.

TO PHYSICIANS & DRUGGISTS.

THE undersigned would inform Physicians and Druggists that, owing to an increasing demand, he is now prepared to manufacture on a larger scale than heretofore all articles of the Pharmacopœia. These will be of the strength and quality as dispensed in the Prescription Department of my store, and will be found superior in strength to most in market. I guarantee them to be of the proper strength and purity.

Some preparations offered are new, but will be made officinal in the new Pharmacopœia soon to be issued, and will be found to be valuable remedies.

Any information as regards their strength, uses and qualities will be sent to those desiring it.

I would advise Physicians who have been disappointed in the effect of any remedy, to try those of my manufacture.

They include—

Compound Extract of Colocynth,

Fluid Extracts of Dandelion, Buchu, Ergot, Gentian, Lipulin Valerian, Wild Cherry Bark, and others,

Citrate of Irod and Citrate of Iron and Quinine; very soluble,

Wine of Iron and Wine of Iron and Bark, agreeable; chalybeates.

Syrup of the Hypophosphites,

Cerate of the Extract of Cantharides; a more reliable preparation than the common Cerate,

Oxalate of Cerium; useful in obstinate vomiting,

Elixir of Valerianate of Ammonia; a valuable remedy for nervous or sick headache, where a nervous stimulant and antacid is indicated,

Solution of Bi-meconate of Morphia: same strength as Laudanum and more agreeable in its effects.

Pyro-phosphate of Iron; soluble.

These, together with all rare and fine chemicals and other medicinal articles, furnished in any quantities.

I am prepared to make chemical examinations of Ores, Drugs, Oils, Waters, &c.

The Eye.

DR. J. R. SPEER, 196 Penn st., Pittsburg, continues to devote special attention, as he has done for the last twenty-five years, to the diseases, deformities and defects of this important organ.

In reply to frequent inquiries of correspondents, it may be stated that, amongst the CURABLE diseases of the eye are Cataract, where the pupil is of a milky color, instead of black, as in the healthy eye; Opthalmia, Pteryginm, Opacities and Films from recent inflammation, Nervous Sensibility of the Optic Nerves Strabismus, or Crooked Eyes, Inversion of the Eye-lids, Fistula, Lachrymalis.

Amongst the incurable are Amaurosis, or complete paralysis of the optic nerve, where no light is visible; Opacities and Films from chronic inflammation; all cases in which the ball of the eye is lessened or altered in form by disease of injuries.

Defects of Vision, as along or short sightedness, may generally be relieved or cured by properly adjusted glasses.

Agriculture and Horticulture,

EMBRACING

Farming, Gardening, Fruit-Raising, &c.

In all their branches, as conducted on the latest and most approved system.

Our labors in this department for over thirty years, have met the cordial approbation of the public. Our purpose has been to furnish useful and reliable information upon these very important branches of industry, and to protect them so far as within our power against the false doctrines and selfish purposes of the many empires and sensation-adventurers by which the Farmer is incessantly assailed. This portion of the Germantown Telegraph will alone be worth the whole price of subscription, as every Farmer and Gardener, who has a proper conception of his calling, will readily admit.

NEWS DEPARTMENT.

The same industry, care, and discrimination, in gathering and preparing the Stirring Events of the Day, expressly for this paper, which hitherto has been one of its marked features and given so universal satisfaction, will be continued with redoubled efforts to meet the increasing demands of the public. The labor required in this department is never fully appreciated by the reader. It would be impossible to present, the condensed and carefully made-up form in which it appears, a corrected mass of all the most interesting news of the week, without involving much physical labor, tact and judgment.

We annex the cash terms, to which we beg leave to call attention of all who think of subscribing for a newspaper:

Advance Cash Terms.

One copy, one year, $2; one copy, three years, $5,00; three copies, one year, $5,00; Five Copies, One Year, $8,00; Ten Copies, One Year, $15,00; Twenty Copies, One Year, $28,00.

☞ Subscription not paid within the year, $2,50.

☞ A Club of five subscribers, at $8, will entitle the person getting it up to a copy for six months; a Club of ten or more, to a copy for one year. All Club subscriptions stopped at the end of the time paid for, unless re-ordered.

NEW BRIGHTON RETREAT.

AN ASYLUM FOR THE RECEPTION, CURE AND TREATMENT OF MENTAL ALIENATION OR DISORDER.

And Other Nervous and Chronic Diseases.

EXCLUSIVELY FOR FEMALES.

THIS institution is now open for the reception, care and treatment of the independent class of patients who are laboring under mental derangement; or other nervous and chronic disease. We make special mention of nervous and chronic diseases, from the fact that seven tenths of the female patients that are committed to our public Asylums, to be treated for disordered minds, are reduced to that lamentable condition through previous physical disorder. By a well timed and judicious treatment of chronic and nervous diseases, all physical disorders, in the majority of cases may be removed; and thus the mind, having suffered through the medium of the body, will when free from the exciting physical cause, throw off the shackles that has bound it to worse than midnight darkness, and reason will, once more, resume its sway, clothed in all its primitive beauty and wonted excellence. Hence the necessity of all those, who are laboring under the predisposing or exciting causes, calculated in the end to impair the mind to resort to an early and judicious course of remedial agents.

The Institution is a large brick building with a stone basement—four stories high and well ventilated. It is situated on an elevated table land which commands a view of entire town—adjacent hills—groves and neighboring streams; all of which are calculated to produce favorable impressions upon the disordered mind.

The Institution is complete in all of its appointments. Having been tastefully fitted up at great expense, in order that it may meet the approbation and views of the most fastidious.

The water closets and bathing apparatus have been gotten up upon the most approved modern scientific principles. This department embraces not only the ordinary baths but, also, the medicated, warm air and ascending and descending douche, for the more effectual and successful treatment of cutaneous and other scrofulous diseases.

We beg leave to say to all those who may be disposed to commit the interests of a dear wife, sister or daughter, to our charge—may be assured that no means will be spared or efforts wanting on our part to ameliorate their condition or to effect a restoration to their accustomed health and vigor of mind.

They have been proved to be the Soldier's never-failing friend in the hour of need.

COUGHS AND COLDS AFFECTING TROOPS

Will be speedily removed and effectually cured by using these admirable medicines, and by paying proper attention to the Directions which are attached to each Pot or Box.

SICK HEADACHES AND WANT OF APPETITE INCIDENTAL TO SOLDIERS.

These feelings which so sadden us, usually arise from trouble or annoyances, obstructed perspiration, or eating and drinking whatever is unwholesome, thus disturbing the healthful action of the liver and stomach. These Organs must be relieved, if you desire to be well. The Pills, taking according to the printed instructions, will quickly a produce a healthy action in both liver and stomach, and as a natural consequence a clear head and good appetite.

WEAKNESS OR DEBILITY INDUCED BY OVER FATIGUE.

Will soon disappear by the use of these invaluable Pills, and the Soldier will quickly acquire additional strength. Never let the bowels be either confined or unduly acted upon. It may seem strange that Holloway's Pills should be recommended for Dysentery and Flux, many persons supposing that they would increase the relaxation. This is a great mistake, for these Pills will correct the liver and stomach and thus remove all the acrid humors from the system. This medicine will give tone and vigor to the whole organic system however deranged, while health and strength follow as a matter of course. Nothing will stop the relaxation of the Bowels so sure as this famous medicine.

VOLUNTEERS ATTENTION! INDISCRETIONS OF YOUTH.

Sores and Ulcers, Blotchings and Swellings, can with certainty be radically cured if the Pills are taken night and morning, and the ointment be freely used as stated in the printed instructions. If treated in any other manner they dry up in one part to break out in another. Whereas this Ointment will remove the humors from the system and leave the Patient a vigorous and healthy man. It will require a little perseverance in bad cases to insure a lasting cure.

FOR WOUNDS EITHER OCCASIONED BY THE BAYONET, OR SABRE OR THE BULLET, SORES OR BRUISES.

To which every Soldier and Sailor are liable there are no medicines so safe, sure and convenient as Holloway's Pills and ointment. The poor wounded and almost dying sufferer might have his wounds dressed immediately, if he would only provide himself with this matchless Ointment, which should be thrust into the wound and smeared all around it, then covered with a piece of linen from his knapsack, and compressed with a handkerchief. Taking night and morning 6 or 8 Pills to cool the system and prevent inflamation.

Every Soldier's knapsack and Seaman's chest should be provided with these valuable Remedies.

The Neuralgia and Rheumatic Plaster (large size,) for Pains in the Chest, Shoulders, Back, or any part af the body, sent post paid, on receipt of Thirty-seven cents.

Address,

WM. B. HURD, CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.

Dr. Hurd's MOUTH WASH, TOOTH POWDER and TOOTHACHE DROPS cannot be sent by mail, but they can probably be obtained at your Drug or Periodical Stores. If they cannot, send to us for the DENTAL TREASURY. Price, ONE DOLLAR, which contains them.

NOW,

ARE DR. HURD'S PREPARATIONS GOOD

The best evidences that they are is, that their firmest friends and best patrons are those who have used them longest. Dr. Wm. B. Hurd is an eminent Dentist of Brooklyn, Treasurer of the New York State Dentists' Association, and these preparations have been used in his private practice for years, and no leading citizen of Brooklyn or Williamsburg questions their excellence, while eminent Dentists of New York recommend them as the best known to the profession. Without the aid of advertising, dealers have sold them by the gross.

The Editor of the Brooklyn Daily Eagle says—We are happy to know that our friend, Dr. Hurd, is succeeding beyond all expectation with his MOUTH WASH and TOOTH POWDER. The great secret of his success rests with the fact that his articles are precisely what they are represented to be, as we can testify from their long use.

The well known P. T. Barnum writes: I found your TOOTH POWDER so good that my family have used it all up. Please send me another supply at the Museum at your convenience, with bill.

But their cost is so small that every one may test the matter for himself.

☞ Beware of the ordinary Tooth Powders. Dr. Hurd's Tooth Powder contains no acids, nor alkali, nor charcoal, and polishes without wearing the enamel. Use no other.

WHAT WILL DR. HURD'S REMEDIES EFFECT?

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will give young ladies that finest charm in woman, a sweet breath and pearly teeth. Try them, ladies.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder will cleanse the mouth from all foul exhalations, and if used in the morning, will make the breakfast taste sweeter and the day seem more pleasant. Hundreds of persons can testify to this. Try them, gentlemen.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder are the the best preparations in the world for curing bad breath and giving freshness and health to the gums. Hundreds of cases of Diseased Bleeding Gums, Sore Mouth, etc., have been cured by Dr. Hurd's astringent wash.

Dr. Hurd's Mouth Wash and Tooth Powder give an additional charm to countenance, and make husbands more agreeable to their wives and wives to their husbands. They should be used by every person having which are liable to impart a taint to the mouth.

Dr. Hurd's Toothache Drops cure Tooth-ache arising from exposed nerves, and are the best friends that parents can have in the house to save their children from torture and themselves from loss of sleep and sympathetic suffering.

Farmers and mechanics, you cannot well afford to neglect your teeth. For a trifling sum you can now get preservatives, than which Rothschild or Astor can get nothing better. Remember that Dyspepsia and Consumption of the Lungs often originate in neglect of Teeth. Send for the Treatise on Teeth, and read Dr. Fitch's observations on this subject. If you are late to arrest decay in your own teeth, save your children's teeth.

NEURALGIA PLASTERS.—Dr. Hurd's Neuralgia Non-Adhesive Plasters are the most pleasant and successful remedies ever prescribed for this painful disease. The patient applies one, soon becomes drowsy, falls asleep, and awakes free from pain, and no blister or other unpleasant or injurious consequences ensue. For Earache and Nervous Headache, apply according to directions, and relief will surely follow. Nothing can be obtained equal to Dr. Hurd's Compress for Neuralgia. Try them. They are entirely a novel, curious and original preparation, and wonderfully successful. They are of two sizes, one small, for the face, price 15 cents, and the other large, for application to the body, price 37 cents. Will be mailed on receipt of price and one stamp.

WHAT ARE THE PEOPLE DOING?

The American people are intelligent enough to appreciate preparations that contribute so much to happiness of those using them, and they wont them. Every mail brings us letters, some ordering the Treatise on Teeth, some the Neuralgia Plasters, and not a few enclosing 37 cts. for the Mouth Wash, to be sent by mail; but to these we are compelled to reply that it is impossible to send a half-pint bottle by mail. The people want these Remedies. Who will supply them?

Now is the CHANCE FOR AGENTS.

Shrewd agents can make a small fortune in carrying these articles around to families. The Dental Treasury is the neatest article that a man or woman can carry around. Send for one and see, or, better, a dozen, which we will sell, as samples, for $7. Agents supplied liberally with circulars. ☞ Now is the time to go into the business, to do good, and make a profit. We are spending thousands for the benefit of agents. New England men or women! here is something nice, and a chance to take the tide at its flood. Address,

WM. B. HURD & CO.,
Tribune Buildings, New York.

That remittances may be made with confidence, W. B. H. & Co., refer to the Mayor of Brooklyn; to G. W. Griffith, President Farmers' and Citizens' Bank, Brooklyn; to Joy, Coe, & Co., New York; to P. T. Barnum, Esq., New York, etc., etc.

MARRIAGE.

ITS loves and hates, sorrows and angers, hopes and fears, regrets and joys; MANHOOD, how lost, how restored; the nature, treatment and radical cure of spermaterrhœa or seminal weakness; involuntary emissions, sexual debility and impediments to marriage generally; nervousness, consumption, fits, mental and physical incapacity, resulting from SELF-ABUSE—are fully explained in the MARRIAGE GUIDE, by WM. YOUNG, M. D. This most extraordinary book should be in the hands of every young person contemplating marriage, and every man or woman who desires to limit the number of their offspring to their circumstances. Every pain, disease and ache incidental to youth, maturity and old age, is fully explained; every particle of knowledge that should be known is here given. It is full of engravings. In fact, it discloses secrets that every one should know; still it is a book that must be locked up, and not lie about the house. It will be sent to any one on the receipt of twenty-five cents in specie or postage stamps.

Address DR. WM. YOUNG, 416 Spruce st. above Fourth, Philadelphia.

☞ Afflicted and Unfortunate, no matter what may be your disease, before you place yourself under the care of any of the notorious Quacks—native or foreign—who advertise in this or any other paper, get a copy of Dr. Young's book, and read it carefully. It will be the means of saving you many a dollar, your health, and possibly your life.

DR. YOUNG can be consulted on any of the diseases described in his publications, at his office, 416 Spruce Street, above Fourth, Phila.
